Accidents—Crimes—Deaths—Markets, Stocks.
Correspondence of The Tribune.

Philadelphia, Saturday, April 12.

Adelaide Rousset, of the Rousset ballet troupe, while performing last evening at the National, in this city, injured her left leg very seriously, while endeavoring to catch herself as she was falling. She was incapacitated from appearing during the rest of the evening.

A colored woman, named Lydia Ann Washington, was arrested and held to bail in $1,000 yesterday, charged with passing counterfeit money. The husband of the prisoner is the person at whose suit the Astrologer Rosset was arrested for his offense.

In Race-street above Third, on Friday afternoon, George M. Glazier was murdered, as follows: by Wallace W. Hart, and shockingly maimed. He was held to bail in $1,000.

A young man, (suppose his name,) attempted to commit suicide at his residence in Arch street yesterday afternoon, by taking laudanum. He is now at the Hospital, where little hope is entertained of his recovery.

A rather novel case was reported to us yesterday. A lame and maimed woman was found over to answer the charge of misdeemeanor in seducing a young man. She rented a room during the past winter, when she kept him. The innocent victim is about 18 years of age, and the girl was brought away.

During the past evening yesterday, there were 123 deaths in this city. Adults, 69; children, 74. One was 102 years of age. Consumption, 14.

The Railroad track between Wilmington, Del., and Baltimore is about being relaid. Six thousand tons of rail will be required, which will be procured from the interior of this State and from abroad.

The Philadelphia Arcade in Chestnut st. was sold at private sale a few days since for $10,000. Dr. Jaynes was the purchaser.

The steamer Lafayette is expected to arrive at this port some time this week from New York. She starts for Liverpool on the 7th proximo.

The German market is quiet. The English market shows some signs of improvement, sales much reduced, case of 4,000 barrels standard brandy, for export at $10 per barrel. There is a moderate demand for old consumption, and for Scotch, rum, &c. The price of Scotch is about 10c per gallon.

The price of rum was advanced at $100 per barrel.

The price of tobacco was advanced at $100 per barrel.
